(Text) New York--It follows from new agency reports that the Cuban counterrevolutionary scum, entrenched in the United States and some other neutrics in the Western Hemisphere, is still natching plans for the invariant of Cuba. According to UPI, Jose Miro Cardona, the ringleader of the Cuban emigres, told correspondents on 30 October that the Revolutionary Council he heads has reserved the right to use force to overthrow Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro, irrespective of the formula for settling the present crisis.

It follows from an AFP report from Mani them preveral ships of the naval raiding group of the Cuban emigred Alpha of sailed to the shores of Cuba last week when the intermetional crisis caused by the U.S. blockade of Cuba was at its height, in order to attack military objectives on that island. However, the expedition was abortive.

The New York TDFS admits that the Cuben emigram hoped that the blockade proclaimed by the United Status would lead to the invasion of Cuba. Even after the exchange of massages between Nikita Khrushchev and John Kennedy, they pledged themselves to continue the struggle against the Casuro regime with the object of liberating the island.
